Budget Adopted

The largest budget in the history of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., was adopted at the business meeting of the church last week.

Significant increase over the 1960 budget will fall in the area of the retirement of the bond program which was issued to finance the new sanctuary, to be dedicated Dec. 3. The budget of $71,255.00 provides for a well-balanced program of support for local work as well as world missions.

Next Sunday will bring to a climax the current "Tithing is Love in Action" stewardship emphasis, and the day is being designated "Ingathering Sunday." During the morning services, church members will present their commitment cards in a spirit of Thanksgiving to the Lord, thereby designating their faith commitments for 1962. The pastor will bring the message of the morning prior to the commitment service at both 8:30 and 11.

Next Sunday the Women's Mission Society will be in charge of the 7 p.m. "Missionary Night" program.

Twenty volunteer workers labored last Saturday at the new Sanctuary sight on installing the new Allen Organ, laying the carpet, making preparation for pouring the patio floor, and in landscaping. Again next Saturday crews will continue with the landscaping and the patio development.

Junior Club Hears Talk; Studies Philanthropies

Fallout shelters, types and advantages, were discussed for members of the Torrance Junior Woman's club, Marina district, CFWC at the business meeting held at the clubhouse Wednesday. Mrs. Jack Dean, president, was in charge.

The speaker, Capt. J. J. Rochefort, was presented by Mrs. Gerson Jacobsen, program chairman.

Mrs. Edward Aiken, philanthropy chairman told of the projects for the Harbor General Psychiatric ward, including Blue Chip Stamps for a sewing machine, securing an electric coffee pot and the collection of hard back novels.

Members voted to donate a "money tree" to the CARE or Latin American Scholarship fund at Christmas time.

Mrs. Rod Buck, Armed Forces and Veterans Service chairman, announced "Operation Handclap." Cookies for service men overseas will also be another club project.

Mrs. Roger Lockhart, chairman of the Christmas dinner-dance, announced the affair will be held at the Crystal room at the Palms. Mrs. Lockhart and Mrs. Fred Smith have tickets for the annual party. The group also voted to sponsor Brownie Troop 1501.

The paintings of Gene Sharp of Redondo are on display at the club for the month of November.

The Thanksgiving decorations were provided by Mrs. DeLoy Stromme and Mrs. Robert Vroman. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Vroman, Clayton Lilley, William Faulds, and Richard Gazeley.
